INTERNAL STRIFE THREATENS THE CZAR

THE OFFICIAL REPORT.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—The czar has received the following message from Viceroy Alexieff, dated Mukden, March 10.—"The commandant of the fortress at Port Arthur reports that about 1 o'clock this morning the outlines of vessels, apparently torpedo boats, were seen at sea, within the area swept by our searchlights. Our batteries opened fire upon these vessels. Our torpedo boats put out to sea at 2:45 a. m., and at about 4 o'clock met the enemy west of the Liao Tshin lighthouse. After firing several shots the enemy retired to the south in the direction of Shandun. Our torpedo boats returned to the harbor at 6 o'clock.

"Later torpedo boats were again sent to sea to reconnoiter. They returned in half an hour, having learned that an enemy's squadron was approaching.

"At 8 o'clock the Japanese opened fire upon our cruisers and the fortress. The enemy had fourteen ships and fired the entire time from behind Liao Tshin.

"I have the honor to report the foregoing to your majesty.
Signed "ALEXIEFF."

GETTING READY TO EVACUATE.

Chefoo, March 11.—Chinamen who arrived here from Korea report fifteen thousand tons of coal soaked with kerosene and placed in the mouth of Yalu river in readiness for firing to cheat the Japanese out of their booty in event of their attempting to land there. The Russians, he says, have made every preparation to evacuate their position at Yalu.

ANOTHER $20 BILL

Gets Harry Anderson. Colored,
Into Trouble.

He is Alleged to Have Passed One of the Mayfield Counterfeits on Mr. Courtney Long.

CASE WAS NOT FINISHED

Harry Anderson, the colored cab driver, was arrested this afternoon about 1:30 o'clock by Deputy U. S. Marshal Sydney Hubbard on the charge of passing a $20 counterfeit Mayfield bank note on Mr. Courtney Long and is being tried this afternoon before Commissioner Armour Gardner.

Long alleges that Anderson passed the money on him March 3 and has since refused to redeem it. Anderson alleges that he did not pass the money on Long and that if he did he was ignorant that it was counterfeit and had gotten it in the same way it had been passed on Long—through ignorance.

The note is similar to those floated in several places besides Paducah and the report of the affair came to the ears of U. S. Secret Service Agent Wright, who investigated and authorized the warrant to be issued to complete the investigation. The only point to be decided is if Anderson knew the money was counterfeit. Anderson is represented by Attorney C. K. Wheeler.

MINERS ARE MAD

Denounce Those Who Voted Against the Miners Bill.

Ask Laboring People to remember Those Who Turn Against Labor.

ASSESSMENT IS NOT REDUCED

Louisville, Ky., March 11.—The first part of the morning's session of the United Miners' convention took the form of an indignation meeting. The resentment of the miners was engendered by the bill providing for the appointment of company inspectors of mines.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, by the delegates of the seventh annual convention of United Mine workers, district No. 23, that no member of the house of representatives who voted against the miners' bill offered by Representative Pride, of Union, be countenanced or elected by the laboring people, and others who should be interested in the welfare of the laborers of the state.

"We further say that the mine workers of Southwestern Kentucky will remember with no feeling of friendliness the action of the representatives of the metropolis of the state."

The convention authorized the sending of the following telegram:

"Governor Beckham: The miners in convention condemn in strong terms those who voted against the mine inspector bill. Action should be reconsidered. Signed: J. D. Wood, Secretary and Treasurer."

A resolution to cut down the monthly assessment for district purposes from 20 to 10 cents a month per capita, was overwhelmingly defeated.

The district has about $10,000 in the treasury, but it was the sense of the convention that the funds should be increased rather than reduced.

LIVELY FIGHT

Efforts to Move the Fire Department
Will be Opposed.

Officials and Others Think It Should Be Moved the Other Way.
If At All.

NORTH SIDE NEEDS A STATION

The proposition to move the fire department from Fourth street, between Broadway and Jefferson, to Kentucky avenue, between Third and Fourth streets, adjoining the city hall, is a project that has already aroused more or less protest. It seems to be the general opinion of those heard to express their views today, that it would be a most senseless thing to move the department in the direction indicated, if not to move it at all.

There seems to be two reasons for the desire to move the department. One is to enable the city to sell the present central station, and have more money to spend, and the other is to get central station away from where it is now, as "it hurts those people thereabout in their business."

A member of the legislative boards said today.

The advantage of location seems to have escaped some of them. The North Side is now greatly in need of fire protection. Central station has to cover the entire North Side, while the South Side has another department. The lack of another station on the North Side is one of the main reasons the insurance companies expect to raise rates in Paducah. Yet the boards propose now to move the station further away from the side of town on which it is needed.

Should the location be changed, as proposed, it would not amount to much as to distance, but it might amount to considerable otherwise. It would force every run of the department to the North Side, to go through the most congested part of the city, the business portion, and would require more time than now to reach the outskirts, which are already too far from the station.

The South Side has most of the manufacturing plants, it is true, but in addition to the city's South Side station, every one of these factories has its own private fire fighting apparatus, which makes protection not so imperative there as it is for the remote parts of the North Side.

The general opinion heard today was that Central station should be allowed to remain where it is, or if moved at all, should be moved farther west and north and not farther south. The present Central station could not be sold for much except the real estate, as the building itself could not well be used for anything else.

Mr. Gray will first learn the habits and disposition of the animal from its former owners before attempting to make friends with it.

GAMES IN APRIL

The Memphis Southern League
Club Comes the 18, 19 and 20

Manager Ray Expects to Take All the Games—President Thompson Settles Hopkinsville Franchise.

WILL RETURN HERE SOON

Manager John S. Ray, of the Paducah K. I. T. league baseball team, this morning received a letter from the managers of the Memphis Southern league team definitely booking a series of three games here.

The letter stated that the Memphis team could come to Paducah on the 18, 19 and 20 of April. Manager Ray wrote in answer that the dates were satisfactory and for the team to come on those dates. Manager Ray expects to receive bookings with other cities tomorrow or Sunday.

President Irvin Thompson is in Hopkinsville settling the matter of who owns the Hopkinsville franchise. Frank Bassett, who managed the team from the start until near the end of the season, claimed to own the franchise but President Thompson has decided that the franchise is the property of the Hopkinsville Baseball association.

It will be remembered that Bassett sold his interests in the team and went on the road for a mercantile house. The franchise, according to President Thompson, has never been bought, but when the affairs of the team went into the hands of the association, the members purchased the franchise.

President Thompson will return here in a day or two and will call another meeting at which the schedule committee will be appointed and ordered to prepare a schedule. At this meeting it is intended that the membership of the league be settled, and this completed the schedule committee will then be selected. No trouble in forming the league is anticipated, hence the appointment of the committee.

She stabbed the man and the sentence is light, considering the evidence and deed.

Crawford wore the convict garb and excited much curiosity among the passengers at the depot. It was thought by many that he was an escaped prisoner being returned to the penitentiary.

A YOUNG TRAMP

He Was Used With Success by Professional Swindler.

Caught in Box Car—Says
in Atlanta, Georgia—Police

ALLEGED THIEF HELD

A. W. Weaver, or "Johnnie" ver, is the name of a professional swindler gave last night when arrested by the police on a charge of using insulting language. He had a lot of cards with the usual kind of poetry about being deaf and dumb and losing his sight from brain fever, and he had a boy about fifteen or sixteen years old with him.

The boy appeared in court today as a witness, and struck the officers as once as being a pretty slick one. He seemed to be the man's assistant, and Chief Collins at once decided to break off their companionship as it was demoralizing to the boy.

The man was turned loose and the boy was held. The supposed deaf mute was as glib a talker as anyone, and soon after court Chief Collins found him waiting about in the hall.

"Well, what are you doing?" asked the chief.

"Waitin' for me brother," replied the "mute." "What's he pinched fur say?"

Chief Collins pumped the man for a time and presently when he looked around found the man was gone.

The boy refused to give his name to reporters, but said he was from Atlanta, Ga., and that his father was a jeweler there. He said this is the farthest north he ever was, and the fact that he wore no overcoat indicated that he felt the cold. He left home two months ago to "knock about" the country, and is still on the go.

It is reported in police circles that the boy lives in Philadelphia, and that his father is a prominent man there.

Later it developed that the boy lives in Atlanta, and claims that his father wrote him that when he felt like coming home he could come. Chief Collins wired the father, and if he does not receive a reply this afternoon will turn the boy loose.

Other cases were:

Will Roberts, gaming, dismissed.

Ed Martin, for throwing a brick through a window, continued.

Will Jeffries, petty larceny by stealing trousers, dismissed.

Fields Gardner, colored, charged with stealing stuff from Michael's and selling it to Ackerman, waived examination and was held to answer in the sum of $200.

HIT 'EM HARD

Democrats Pass a Bill to Handicap a Republican Mayor.

Find it Will Have the Same Effect on Three Democratic Mayors, Including Paducah's.

REGULATES POLICE BOARD

The state senate has passed a bill which will prove of great importance in Paducah, along with other second class cities, should it get through the house.

The bill was introduced by Senator Spencer, and provides for pensions for disabled policemen and firemen in second class cities, according to the title. No special attention was attracted to it in the senate and the vote was unanimous.

When the bill was reported to the house it was discovered that a section provided that policemen and firemen cannot be removed except when charges are preferred in writing, and with certain "red tape" provisions that it is claimed would practically prevent the removal of policemen and firemen.

The representative from Lexington is now strenuously fighting the bill, for he accidentally discovered that it was "loaded." The original intention of it was to keep the recently elected mayor of Covington, Ky., who is a republican, from having any control over the police and firemen, and thus enable all the Democrats now holding the jobs, to keep them after the mayor gets control of the fire and police commissioners.

Covington's mayor, it seems, will appoint one police commissioner April 1 of this year and another in 1905, thus giving him control, and to place all the police and firemen out of his reach was the object of the bill. It finally dawned on the benighted Democrats at Frankfort that it would have the same effect in the Democratic mayor's in the three other second class cities, however, as it would on the one Republican, and relieve them all alike of the control they now exercise over the police and firemen. Since then enterprising Democrats discovered that the bill would prove a boomerang they have become somewhat alarmed, and will seek a reconsideration. It is likely, however, that the pension clause will remain, in which event, owing to the shifting changes of various municipal administrations, few policemen and firemen will ever get to remain in the service long enough to get a pension.

There are none in Paducah who would likely be retired on pensions. Lieutenant Frank Harlan is probably the oldest official in Paducah, in point of service, but he is still as young, alert and active as he was 25 years ago.

The fate of the bill passed in the senate, however, will be watched with interest here. One thing is certain. The Republican mayor of Covington, will have as much control over police and firemen as the Democratic mayors have over theirs.

QUITE A ROMANCE

Father Finds a Long Lost Daughter in Kentucky.

He Left Her 24 Years Ago and Found Her Well and Happy in Columbus, Ky.

HER OWN STORY ROMANTIC

A story that exemplifies the old saying that truth is stranger than fiction comes from Columbus, Ky., down below Hickman. It says that after being separated from his daughter twenty-four years, whom he left a baby in long clothes in Elgin, Ia., and who mourned him as dead all her life. H. M. Housworth, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, arrived in Columbus a few days ago and discovered his lost child, who is now Mrs. Walter Gayle.

In 1880 Mr. Housworth, for some cause, left his wife and baby in Elgin, Ia., and went to Canada. Months passed and nothing was heard of him. Mrs. Housworth grew tired of waiting. She applied for a divorce and it was granted. Shortly afterwards she became the wife of Ed Rogers.

An annulment of the second marriage contract was prayed for and granted. A few years elapsed and Mrs. Rogers married a Mr. Pinney, with whom she is now living. The coming fair at St. Louis brought about the meeting of Mr. Housworth and his daughter. Upon going to Winnipeg he associated himself with a farming implement company, with which firm he has been for a quarter of a century. The company secured space for a display of its products at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. In looking through its army of employees for a suitable man to take charge of its interests at the fair, Mr. Housworth was decided upon as the most available person. He immediately started for St. Louis to look over the ground. On his way he decided to stop at his former Iowa home and inquire after his wife and child. He found the former and was surprised to learn she had married twice since he left. He asked about his daughter, and was told she had married three years ago and was living in Columbus, Ky. He came here, with the result as told above. After a few days spent with his newly found child, Mr. Housworth left for St. Louis.

The marriage of Walter Gayle and Mr. Housworth's daughter was brought about in a strange way. Mr. Gayle was a widower, and had several children, among whom is a son, Robert, 18 years old. Mr. Gayle is a raiser and shipper of strawberries, which fruit is extensively grown here. One day in May, 1900, Robert wrote these words upon the back of one of his father's strawberry tickets: "Will the purchaser of this box of berries write to me?" He neglected to sign his name to the request and placed the ticket at the bottom of a box of the fruit. On the opposite side of the ticket was the full name of his father. Mr. Gayle's berries were that day placed in a refrigerator car with shipments of other parties. Fate willed it that the car should be billed to a commission merchant in Burlington, Ia.

There is nothing so important in facing severe cold weather as a well organized digestive force. When the stomach properly digests nutritious food it creates new, rich blood; and fortifies the system against cold.

Walther's Peptonized Port, to be found at all drug stores, is an ideal combination of pure, rich port and the best quality of pepsin. It strengthens the weak digestive organs, restores the appetite, builds and tones up the entire system.

For invalids, convalescents and worn out people, there is nothing so beneficial as Walther's Peptonized Port.

WERE NOT GUILTY

Unusual Story of a Husband's Guilt.

Killed His Wife and Allowed Three Men to Be Lynched For it.

CONFESSED WHILE DYING

Charleston, S. C., March 10.—Advices received here from Walterboro, S. C., state that the brutal murder of Mrs. G. F. Jones, the wife of a section hand on the Atlantic Coast Line, two years ago, for which three negroes were lynched, was really committed by the woman's husband, and he is alleged to have made a death bed confession of the horrible crime a few days ago.

The murder was committed May 13, 1902. It was one of the most brutal crimes which has occurred in this thickly settled negro section of South Carolina, and the discovery of the crime was left for the little 10-year-old daughter of the parents who had been the participants of the killing. When the little girl awoke and dressed, she found herself alone in the house. She looked in vain about the house for her mother, and failing to find her she started to look through the premises, when in stepping from the kitchen door she came upon the object of her search, lying near the doghouse, covered in blood. She gave the alarm and hastened down the railroad tracks a short distance to her father, to announce the terrible news. He returned with his daughter to the scene of the murder and appeared to be overcome by the sad sight which met his view. Mrs. Jones' skull was fractured and her arms and hands were badly cut. Further examination showed that she was much bruised about her body. Three negroes, Jim Black, Thomas Pryor and Arthur Ford, notorious characters of the neighborhood, had been seen about the house on the morning of the tragedy and they were suspected of being the perpetrators of the crime. A posse was organized in which Jones joined, and before night the three negroes had been captured and lynched. When the negroes were strung up to a tree, Jones was permitted to fire the first shot at them.

On account of the particularly atrocious character of the crime and the general belief that the negroes had committed it, the lynching was condoned by the white people, but the negroes, who largely outnumbered the whites, where much exercised, and for a time they threatened serious trouble. The crime and the subsequent lynching had almost been forgotten until now the story has got out that on his deathbed Jones confessed to his physician that he had killed his wife and allowed the negroes to be hung for the crime that he might escape the penalty. It is said that a quarrel arose about Jones' breakfast and in a fit of passion he seized an ax and knocked his wife down, as she was about to enter the kitchen door with the wood for the stove. After he knocked her down, according to the story, he hit her several times again, to make sure that she was dead, and then he went down to the railroad track and put his gang to work. He is said to have seen the negroes, who were lynched near the house, and his supposition that they would be suspected of the crime and pay the penalty was realized.

The alleged confession has caused great excitement in and about Walterboro since the story got out, notwithstanding the efforts of the family to keep it quiet.

GATES ORDERED

But Several of the Ordinances
Were Billed by Aldermen.

No Definite Action Taken in the Important Questions Before the Board Last Night.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MEETING

The Board of Aldermen met in regular session last night with all members present except Alderman Gus Singleton.

Mayor Yeiser urged the board to take some immediate action towards increasing the fire departments, and the action of the council in referring this to a committee for immediate attention was ratified.

The motion to allow Mayor Yeiser, Auditor Kirkland and Clerk Bailey typewriting machines, was killed, only Auditor Alex Kirkland being given a machine.

The matter of appropriating $2,000 to the Carnegie library committee so the library may be opened soon was referred to finance committee.

A report was read from Solicitor Puryear saying the ordinance governing the publication of the delinquent tax list, is legal.

The ordinance committee was instructed to bring in an ordinance fixing a rate for the city scales. It seems there is no established list of rates.

A communication from the National Board of Fire Underwriters to the Mayor was read. It was accompanied by the recommendations of Captain Johnson, the Philadelphia expert, and was the first official notice of the action taken by the National board against the city. The communication was filed and the fire commissioners ordered to meet the insurance men in conference.

The Charity Club was voted $100 to assist in caring for the poor of the city.

Mayor Yeiser reported that a wall on Third street side of the Potter was on yard at Third and Jefferson was in a dangerous condition, and recommended that the matter be referred to Solicitor Puryear with orders to have the walls repaired and rendered safe, or condemned.

Mayor Yeiser stated that the ordinance providing for the improvement of Jefferson from Fourteenth to Seventeenth street was in his hands unsigned, not because it was unconstitutional but because the consent of the two thirds property owners necessary for the improvement could not be had in that territory. If the board would order the improvements from Fourteenth to Eighteenth, Mayor Yeiser stated the necessary two-thirds property owners consent could be had, and the committee on ordinance was given the matter. A new ordinance will be brought in.

Mayor Yeiser said he had heard from Eastern capitalists offering to take the $200,000 street improvement bonds as soon as the matter of their legality is settled, but withheld the name of the capitalists.

Salaries and bills against the city amounting to a total of $7,420.21 were allowed.

The motion for the city to refuse payment of bills to any one who owes the city taxes and also for the street inspector to hire no teams of drivers who owe wagon license and for the policemen to be "docked" while off duty for any purpose when they should be serving the city, was adopted.

Wharfmaster Fowler reported $25 collections for February while City Weigher Hession reported the collection of $69 for the past two months.

The report of Treasurer Derian was received and filed. It shows balance on hand February 1, $16,620.60, with receipts $10,520.50 and expenditures $8,262.67, leaving a balance in the treasury of $1,887.43.

The report of the city tax book supervisors was presented and filed. It showed a raise from Assessor Dick's assessment amounting to $8,433.039 to $9,385,397 which includes the assessment of $883,495 placed by the railroad commissioners.

The franchise tax of the steam heating company and new telephone company were reduced from $5,000 to $500.

Ex-Marshall James Crow presented his report for replevined fines as follows: September 1 to October 31,

YOUR TOBACCO.

Farmers might profit by the advice given them by a great many tobacco-ists to keep their tobacco until they can sell it at their own price. Tobacco will not spoil easily.

The average tobacco grower is usually in such circumstances that the wolf does not hover about his door, and he can afford to wait. All this not about the trust and about relief from legislation, should be taken with a grain of salt.

There is no noticeable falling off in the consumption of tobacco. Some of these days the present over-supply, which is in reality the cause of low prices, will be exhausted. Then those who manufacture tobacco will have to buy from those who raise it. When the trusts and foreign buyers use up what they now have on hand, they must buy more or go out of business.
They'll buy, and they'll pay what those who have it to sell ask, or do without. Bills in congress may help the grower by creating a new market, but not much.

Legislation will not force the great buyers of tobacco to buy. It may enable some of the "small-fry," by taking off the tax, to buy and go into the manufacturing business independently, but this would place them in competition with the trusts, with their unlimited resources, their costly machinery and immense plants. How many would care to run the risk?

The thing to do is to let those who prepare tobacco for consumption use up what they have. They may have practically a monopoly in the manufacture and sale of the manufactured product, but the grower has a monopoly in raising it. After all, the manufacturing trusts will in the long run be dependent on the growers' trust.
When they use what they have on hand, they must have more. They can't get along without it, and want.
They'll need it and pay a good price for it. This may not be for some little time—it all depends on how long the supply lasts—but it's bound to come sooner or later. Past this in your hat and see if it doesn't come true.

THE OAT OUT.

The Courier-Journal has just made two important disclosures. One is that it will not bolt the Democratic ticket this time, and the other is that it favors Senator Gorman for President. It then explains its position and incidentally raps some of the so-called Democratic leaders:

"The Courier-Journal has no purely individual likes or dislikes to overcome. If it had the power directly to place a man in the White House it would place Mr. Gorman there because it is tired of the Mugwump business and of baby leadership, and wants at the head of affairs a Democrat of tried, trained and proved ability. It has freed its mind about Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hearst. It is its purpose to support the nominee.
Now let the battle go on."

The Mayor of Louisville is now a czar. The "Ripper bill" has passed and been signed by the Governor. It empowers the mayor of first class cities to remove members of the Boards of Public Safety and of Public Works at will, which means that if they do not do what he wants them to do, he will put in someone else. Thus the jobs—the living and welfare—of hundreds of policemen, firemen and others are left in the hands of one man, who can make beggars of them in one day—or a few hours. This bill was passed by a legislature elected by a party that prates about its being a "friend to the common people." Thus do the Democrats, by creating a practical monarchy in the metropolis of Kentucky, demonstrate their idea of democracy.

The Courier Journal hits the nail on the head when it states that the printing graft resolves itself into the question, not of what printers skinned the state, but of what officials allowed them to do it. The printer may be like other people in business, and desires to get as much as possible for his work. But what right had any state official or set of state officials to permit him to get $25,000 more than the work was worth?

Owensboro is preparing to let a contract for sprinkling the streets. Why can't Paducah afford street sprinkling, at least in the down town sections? Sprinkling improves the health does away with dust, cools the atmosphere and saves the streets. If the boards would pay less attention to salaries and more to public convenience, health and economy, we would have at better city.

Theatrical Notes.

Billy Kersands and his big colored minstrels will be at The Kentucky one night only, Tuesday, March 15. Ker-sands' minstrels is the acknowledged leader of all colored companies and in every department surpasses everything that has gone before in genuine minstrelsy. The members of this colossal company are genuine funmakers and do not have to resort to vulgarity in their efforts to please. Do not wait until the doors are open but get your tickets at once or you may have to stand up. Seats on sale Monday, March 14. Entire balcony reserved for the colored people.

For over 400 times at the Casino,
New York, "A Chinese Honeymoon" delighted New Yorkers. The hold that the merry, tuneful and brightly beautiful play had on metropolitan theatergoers is not so remarkable when the many excellences of the production are considered. It has undoubtedly the best story and wittiest lines of any musical play which has been produced in America in several decades. Its first visit to Paducah will be at The Kentucky next Wednesday night.

At The Kentucky last night a clever farce, Miss Hursey From Jersey, was the bill. The situations were ridiculously funny and every act found the audience roaring with laughter.
H. P. Walter VanDyke as the son-in-law was very good. Tonight the three act melodrama, "A Cowboy's Girl" will be presented. This is one of the strongest pieces played by the company, and a large audience is expected to witness this play.

ONE CONVERSION.

The meeting at the Trimble street Methodist church is growing in interest. A large congregation attended the services last night. There was

WORK TO BEGIN

Extensive Improvements to be Made on Louisville Division

New Depots, Passing Tracks, New Water Supply Stations and Other Things.

BIG OFFICIALS NOW INSPECTING

The Illinois Central Railroad company will this spring make extensive improvements on the Louisville division of the road and the total amount of money expended in the improvements will amount high into the thousands.

This morning Chief Engineer H. U.
Wallace, Chicago; General Manager of Southern lines H. C. McCourt, Memphis; First Principal Assistant Engineer H. Robert Safford, Chicago; Superintendent A. H. Egan, Roadmaster F. L. Thompson Louisville, Master Mechanic T. F. Barton, Paducah and Mr. W. F. Katterjohn, the local contractor, left on two special cars on the Fulton and Louisville accommodation train No. 122 at 7:50 o'clock for Louisville on a general tour of inspection of the Louisville division for the purposes of recommending improvements.

Mr. Wallace and Safford will leave the party at Louisville and will go to Chicago in their private car No. 6, via Lafayette, Ind., over the Big Four route. Mr. McCourt will return to the city tonight on his private car No.
19, and will be accompanied by Master Mechanic Barton and Contractor F. W. Katterjohn. Supt. Egan and Roadmaster Thompson will probably remain in Louisville.

Mr. Wallace stated this morning that he was on a tour of inspection but could not give out anything definite relative to the improvements to be made. "We will have to look over the division first," he explained, "before anything can be decided on.
There are some improvements to make I am sure, but nothing definite will be settled until after we have finished."

Mr. Safford stated that the appropriation which is made each spring to the engineering department for improvements, has not been made yet on account of the complete data not being in.

"An appropriation is made every year to the engineering department," Mr. Safford stated, "but how much it will be can not be determined yet, and will not be until the higher officials see just what work is to be done. This will require some little time yet, but the inspections are being made rapidly as possible and all data will be filed shortly and the improvements definitely decided on. It is then that the appropriation matter will be discussed and action taken."

The Louisville division will come in for a good share of this appropriation, it is assured. Superintendent Egan, who with Roadmaster Thompson and other division officials, is piloting the higher officials about the pointing out possible improvements, stated this morning:

"There are a number of passing tracks to be built and many water supply stations to be erected. As to the buildings I can say nothing. It is possible that several new depots at small stations will be built, but this part of the improvements will come under another head and this matter will not be touched on during this inspection."

Mr. Katterjohn, who owns the Katterjohn Construction Co., stone quarries at Cedar Bluff, will probably take the party through his quarries this morning if they have enough time, to show the officials just what he is doing in the way of getting out ballast for the road.

"I am now getting out thirty car loads of ballast a day," he declared,
"and the road is running a double header train out of Cedar Bluff daily with stone to use for ballasting purposes on the Tennessee division, where the double tracking is being done. The big 100,000 capacity cars are being used which means that 15 tons of crushed stone is being daily turned out of the quarries for the railroad company. Some of this ballast will be used in repairing the Cairo extension tracks this summer."

Mr. Katterjohn is now working two hundred men at the stone quarries, having added thirty-five the first of the month, and when the additional big crusher is received this spring, will nearly double the capacity of the plant. The Illinois Central recognizes the merits of the quarries and Mr.

Katterjohn furnishes as much stone for ballast on the road as any contractor on the system, and much more than many other quarries.

The Louisville division has been attracting the attention of the higher officials for some time, not because it has been in such a congested condition this season but because it is the second division on the system, standing next to the Chicago division, and calls for the best managing material in the employ of the road. It is sufficient to say in support of this assertion, that the highest official now in the employ of the road, Mr. W. J.
Harahan, assistant general manager and H. U. Wallace, chief engineer, were a few years ago superintendent of this division and were instrumental in building it up to its present standing.

The best dispatching facilities are used and the best material obtainable is secured for this division and notwithstanding this fact, the officials desire that conditions be even bettered by improvements of such a nature that every possible convenience be afforded the dispatchers and crews in making time and handling the business.

It is probable that another inspection by different officials will be made on this division with the view of recommending improvements in the way of buildings, but it is not known when this inspection will be made.

Cannot Make Them Sick Now.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Keeps Hard-Pressed Office Men and Women Well and Enjoying Life.

G. H. Beinhausen Grateful for Hearty Health—Gives the Great Tonic to Friends Who Are Feeling Badly.

Read the last sentence of this letter even if you read no more than that.
There is a lesson for you in the earnest efforts of this busy office man to help his friends find the way to Vitality and True Health.

Thousands of men and women who had forgotten what it was to feel the thrill of true health—toilers or pleasure seekers, with health broken by indoor existence—have learned in just this way (by having it forced upon them by an earnest friend) how Paine's Celery Compound, the marvelous Tonic and Vital-izer, is ready to give them Health again and to drive away all weakness and depression.

No more stimulant can take the place of the nerve nourishment given to the Nerves by Paine's Celery Compound.
Sherwood Park, Yonkers, N. Y., January 7, 1904.

"I am recommending Paine's Celery Compound to many of the people in our office, and I am glad to say to you that I say to them, that Celery Compound is a boon to run-down, nervous people, and gives the COURAGE and HEALTH that makes LIFE WORTH LIVING and MAKES WORK PLEASANT.

"My occupation is such a strain on me and keeps me so confined that it is only once or twice in years that I take a good, long walk.

"Every Spring I had a serious sickness, a sort of general breakdown.

"My digestion, which was always bad, would grow worse and cause me violent pains. For weeks at a time I would not be able to assimilate food.

"When the doctor told me it was 'nerve exhaustion' I thought he was simply unable to tell me what the trouble really was, and I said I did not believe in 'nerves.'

"I took several kinds of digestion medicine, but it did me no good. I read an advertisement of Paine's Celery Compound one day and thought I would try it and see if the trouble really was in the nerves.

"My friends were astonished to see how quickly I improved, but none of them was more astonished than myself.
The trouble in my stomach and intestines was gone in three weeks or a month, and I began to take as much pleasure in life as a man who lives entirely out of doors.

"I still take Paine's Celery Compound, off and on, for the vitality it gives me.
I know a great many people who are as badly off as I was, but the trouble with them is, they do not believe in nerves."

I say:
"Well, even if you haven't nerves, let me give you one dose of Paine's Celery Compound, and see how much better you feel." It is better than arguing with them. I have started several friends in that way."

G. H. BEINHAUSEN.

"The only Real Cure is that which cures the REAL CAUSE. Treating symptoms is mere waste of time.

College, the famous Discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound.

NAME CHANGED

The Megiddo Will Next Trip be the "Chattanooga".

Capt. Blair Says His Boat Will Continue in the Chattanooga Trade.

Captain W. A. Blair, of Davenport Iowa, who has been running the Megiddo in the Tennessee river, Chattanooga and Paducah trade, will this afternoon leave for his home after a business trip to the city in the interest of his boat.

"You may state to the public," he said, "that the Megiddo will continue to run in the Chattanooga and Paducah trade as long as the Lord will keep enough water in the river to run her. The report that she would enter another trade is without foundation and I can't imagine how the report originated."

"The Megiddo will not be known by that name when she returns. At Chattanooga this trip she will have her name changed to 'Chattanooga' the papers having been received authorizing the change today."

Mr. Frank Brown, who has been acting as agent for the Paducah, Tennessee river and St. Louis packets and also for the Cincinnati and Memphis packets, has been made captain of the Megiddo and this afternoon made his first trip in that capacity.

Captain Blair, the owner of the boat, has been in authority on the steamer since she entered the Paducah and Chattanooga trade while Mr. Brown acted as chief clerk. Mr. Brown, being a capable steamboatman, was promoted to the captainship this morning upon Mr. Blair's departure for home in Davenport, Iowa.

Mr. Brown is a well known and popular man and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his deserved promotion.

THE RAISE

SECRETARY NELSON EXPECTS IT WILL BE MADE SOON.

A meeting of the fire committees and the mayor was held this afternoon at the city hall in the mayor's office, and it was decided to at once ask for bids for buying the Central Station property on North Fourth street, and for bids for building a new station on the city property adjoining the city hall.

The mayor was also authorized to get bids for building a station at Tenth and Clay streets, and to get bids for new chemical engines and other apparatus. All this is to be done without delay, so the committee can recommend to the boards the best plan for accomplishing the desired ends.

DID NOT REPUDIATE IT.

The Kellogg Mackay-Cameron Co. has filed a suit in circuit court here against Messrs. J. E. Coulson, the plumber, and H. A. Potter, the boat-stove man, for $299.87 alleged to be due on a heating system placed in Mr. Potter's home. Mr. Potter states in order that the public may not get an erroneous idea of the case, that he has never repudiated a debt, and did not in this case. That the company furnished the heating plant for his home and it is not up to contract, and does not do what was claimed for it, and he has declined to settle the bill "until the right kind of boiler and other appurtenances are placed in by the company. When this is done the bill will be paid."

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE

The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper colored spots break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful Virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. Send for our home treatment book and write us if in need of medical advice or special information. This will cost you nothing.

WASTE OF TIME

Will Be a Conference With Underwriters, Says an Agent.

The City Should Get to Work Instead—Inquiry Probable Over City Scale Management.

PASSING OF GATE QUESTION

Local insurance men do not feel much encouraged over the decision of the municipal boards to have the local fire board meet insurance underwriters to ascertain if a compromise cannot be reached.

"It is a waste of time," one declared today. "The underwriters have nothing to confer over, and no compromises to make. They have been told by their inspectors what is needed in Paducah, and it is our opinion, intend to raise rates unless what they recommend is done. This is all there is to it. The underwriters don't care any more about Paducah than any other town. They have insurance to sell, and if people want it at their rates they can get it. If not, they can do without. The city provides fire protection, and has a right to make it as good or as bad as it sees fit. The insurance underwriters make rates, and have a right to make them as high or as low as they see fit."

"No, the energy of our city officials is in the wrong direction. A conference with insurance underwriters will accomplish nothing. They should use this time and energy to get the protection that the people are entitled to and must have if they hope to keep down rates."

There is likely to be an inquiry in the municipal boards pretty soon over the present management of the city scales. It is already brewing. Today a reporter was shown tickets from the city weigher's office, given to certain persons, in which the weight of the same wagon empty was given on two different days at 707 pounds and 1115 pounds, a difference of 408 pounds.

The city official who now has the tickets said further that not long since the wagon of a well-known dealer was weighed and certified to weigh 1115 pounds and 20 minutes later the same wagon was weighed again on the same scales and certified to weigh 1150 pounds, an increase of 35 pounds in less than 35 minutes. The wagon was then taken over to private scales nearby and weighed 1185 pounds. According to the officials who have taken up the matter, there are many complaints about the weighing. W. M. Hesselton is city weigher, and it is said either he isn't on to his job or else the city scales need repairing. He was elected by the new council a short time ago to succeed Mr. T. W. Baird.

The automatic gate question seems to have dwindled in importance, and from the effort a few weeks ago to make the railroads put up gates at every intersection of their roads with the city streets, it was finally reduced to four gates, two for each railroad.

The principal reason for the change is said to be that city officials have been convinced that the gates are of little advantage except in large cities where traffic is large, and trains are numerous. In Paducah comparatively few trains run through the city, and a flagman in a large majority of cases is sufficient except possibly at one or two crossings. These gates are operated by a man, and prevent a team from passing, while a flagman only warns, but usually the warning is as effective as the gate. In a city where there are many trains and many teams the gates are shut and prevent teams from crossing, while in a city the size of Paducah the flagman warns teams and thus accomplishes the same thing.

WILL RUN NEW BOAT SOON.

The I. O. Railroad company will put a transfer boat in the Brookport and Paducah ferry trade as soon as possible, in order to facilitate the freight business across the river. Since the Osborne was taken out of the trade and the barge was used, the facilities have been bad and the merchants who ship stuff that way have been complaining.

POLICE SORRY

To Learn of Officer Ben Williams Death.

Veteran Officer Often Came Here—Was an Ex-Confederate

The police department of Paducah learned with regret of the death at Mayfield of Officer Ben Williams, who for years had done good work in co-operating with them in criminal catching, and often came here.

Officer Williams, as told briefly in a dispatch to the Sun Wednesday, died from blood poisoning resulting from a scratch on the back of his hand caused by a slight tick while cutting kindling.

At first the wound was considered of little moment, but the arm began to swell until finally the poison passed through his entire body.

Mr. Williams was born near Huntington, in Carroll county, Tenn., and moved to Graves county in 1864 and engaged in farming.

Mr. Williams was a member of Forrest's Cavalry, U. S. C. during the war and made a gallant soldier.

He was appointed a policeman of the city of Mayfield about 1889. He leaves a wife and eleven children and many friends to mourn his death.

BOARD MET

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CONSIDER NEW RULES—NEW MEMBER PRESENT.

Mr. J. V. Greif, the newly elected school trustee, was present last night at the called meeting of the Board of Education, which met for the purpose of considering the revised rules.

The board adopted a number of the rules, but the one making the school month 20 instead of 22 days was referred back.

Monday night next the board expects to take up the question of adding another grade to the present course, which has eleven grades. It is proposed to establish a twelfth, or post-graduate grade.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass state could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over 35 years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." DEATH'S RELIEF

Inspector W. W. Holland Dies at Cumberland City, Tenn.

Had For Several Weeks Been Afflicted With Blood Poisoning There.

STARTED FROM PEN PRICK

News of the death at 9 o'clock this morning of Mr. W. W. Holland, of Kuttawa, who had for a long time been the Ayer & Lord Chief Inspector on the Cumberland river, was received here this morning by Captain H. Baker, of the tie company. He died at Cumberland City, Tenn.

Mr. Holland several months ago was confined to his bed by blood poisoning and lingered for several weeks without any change. For the past several weeks he had been doing well until day before yesterday when he had a relapse and had gradually sunk lower until this morning when he succumbed.

He had been at Cumberland City, Tenn., since his illness and the remains will be shipped to Kuttawa, his birthplace for burial.

He was about 45 years of age, married, and leaves besides a wife several children and brothers. Mr. L. P. Holland, of the A. & L. Tie Co., is a brother and has gone to Cumberland City to take charge of the remains.

Mr. Holland had been ill from blood poisoning since the middle of December, when he stuck a pen in his hand accidentally. The ink, the metal or something else produced the affliction which kept him in bed for many weeks, and several weeks ago he was reported dead, but rallied and got better.

Bouris to have Fire Facilities Increased at Once.

Mr. C. C. Reese, insurance commissioner for this district, this morning received a letter from Mr. W. C. Nelson, secretary of the Tennessee and Kentucky Board of Underwriters, in which Mr. Nelson stated that he was sure Paducah would be among the first towns of this district to be effected by a raise of rates.

Mr. Nelson cited the fact that he himself and other insurance men had come to Paducah to investigate and had pointed out deficiencies to which the city paid no attention. It has been three months since the insurance men made out their list, which is time enough for the city to have acted.

IN THE WOODS

Former Fulton Man Shot Himself in the Head.

Body Found Near Mounds, Ill., Lying Against a Tree There.

Ben Ward, formerly of Fulton, Ky., was found dead in the woods near Mounds, Ill., not far from Cairo.

A hole in his head [and a revolver by his side, told the tale. The body still leaned against a tree when found.

Ward had been employed as a bartender at Cairo, but until recently lived at Fulton. He came of a prominent family at Sikeston, Mo., and was about 30 years old and unmarried.

The body was cold and stiff, indicating that Ward had been dead for some time. He was a popular man and no cause is known for his suicide.

FLOATED TO BLISS

Marshall County Couple Outwitted Parents.

They Were Intercepted Once, But Next Time Took a Skiff to Metropolis.

Miss Florida Nunnely and Mr. Joe Brindley have again exemplified the futility of trying to defeat the will of Cupid. They reside near Birmingham, Marshall county, and several days ago decided to go to Paris, Tenn., and wed. They made the fatal mistake of telling a friend or two "confidentially," and when the train on which they were speeding to bliss arrived at Hardin, the girl's father and two brothers got aboard and broke up the bridal party, forcibly taking the girl home.

A day or two afterwards the young lady left home ostensibly to visit a neighbor. Instead, she met her fiance, and they proceeded post haste to the Tennessee river. Taking a skiff they were rowed to Metropolis, Ill., by Short Downing and Jake Tubbs, and were married there. It was a cold trip, but they succeeded in marrying, and took the train home from Paducah.

TO GO BACK

FORMER I. C. OFFICIAL MAY RETURN TO THE LOCAL OFFICE.

It is probable that a well known and popular man who for years held a position in the dispatching offices of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central road, will soon go back with the road.

Nothing definite has been given out relative to this matter but it is known that the officials of the division are anxious to get him.

There is a vacancy existing in the local offices now, caused by the resignation of H. Wardenberg, third trick dispatcher, and the company is looking for a dispatcher who is acquainted with the division and who is a capable and reliable man in the place.

The pupils are satisfied and pleased with the arrangement of study now and the school work is progressing nicely.
